SPEAKING - CATALYST FOR CHANGE

HER CANDID KEYNOTE MESSAGES ARE DESIGNED TO INSPIRE AUDIENCES TOWARD TRUE LEADERSHIP GROWTH AND BOTTOM-LINE IMPACT.

She speaks from a depth of experience that is tangible and she ignites a room with her electrifying energy! Elizabeth captivates audiences like no other. Her ability to inspire woman to transform, support one another and lead from a posture of authenticity is not only empowering but enlightening to the sou. Her speaking capabilities are dynamic and captivating. I truly believe any room and audience will be blessed by her presence. She is a must have to your event.

Kimberly Joy Morgan CEO, Do All Things with Joy, LLC. Founder for Fiercely Feminine

Elizabeth is very passionate about what she does. She simply electrifies the audience and maintains engagement from the crowd.

Bogdan Ilie, VP Production Electrics

A true speech talent. A true inspiration for all touched by her energy.

It's undeniable that all focus goes to Elizabeth as she enters any room and starts to speak. Her energy, her drive, her motivation is truly contagious! Nobody in the room gets side tracked by any other tasks. All eyes are on Elizabeth. And that's hard to see in today's distracted society.

Veronica Schoell, European Key Account Manager ITW

All you must do is just watch the audience's reaction to her speaking.

As one of our workshops opening speakers at Shine the Light Non-Profit Forum workshop she shared invaluable insights about her experiences as a leader and provided great examples that the audience clearly appreciated. Her spontaneity during the Q&A was one of the most exciting interchanges I've seen between a speaker and audience! Elizabeth excels at transferring her leadership expertise and experiences to others in an engaging and authentic way

SIGNATURE SPEAKING TOPICS

WELLBEING WHY YOU SHOULD CARE

There is no question today that people are stressed to capacity, overloaded, doing much more with much less while navigating the complexities of a fast pace work world and home life. Smart leaders and organizations are aware of their part and supporting their people through this new way of life because they know it impacts their success their outcomes. And the companies that do not get this will be left in the dust.

STRATEGY, CULTURE & LEADERSHIP BEHAVIOR

Corporate culture is a hard thing to get right but one thing's for sure, it will make or break even the best business strategy. You can write down a well-intentioned set of guiding principles and values and post them in the break-room and on the company website, hand out elegant brochures, but these core values mean absolutely nothing unless people see them lived out day by day - starting with your key leaders.

MOVING WOMEN FORWARD

Elizabeth has redesigned her career a few times and deeply relates to the excitement women feel when discovering a calling that ignites them. Her messages for women are vulnerable, but straightforward and oozing passion and wisdom that inspires women at every level of leadership to get moving toward a fuller future.

- What women do to move one another forward.
- What organizations can do to move women & minorities forward

GET CLEAR ABOUT HOW YOU LEAD

So, others are clear about how to follow and support you.

At the core of great leadership, be it parent, soccer coach, minister, or corporate leader, is clarity about your people and where you are headed. People want a clear, decisive leader who is in tuned to how he/she shows up to others and knows how to move them forward. "I am constantly working on myself and I need to ...just ask my family and those who work with me."-Elizabeth
